At 12:53 a.m. on Friday, October 12, 2012, the parties filed a Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(ii). See Dkt. No. 221. Jury selection was set to begin that same day, October 12, 2012, at 1:30 p.m. The parties' Stipulation of Dismissal was filed too late for the Court to dismiss the summoned potential jurors from appearing for jury duty. Accordingly, the Court will assess jury costs against the parties pursuant to Civil Local Rule 40-1. After the Court determines which potential jurors appear and the amount of jury costs, the Court will issue an Order notifying the parties. Any party wishing to contest the assessment may do so by filing a declaration showing cause why the costs should not be assessed. The Court will set the deadline for filing any declaration contesting the assessment of jury costs at one week from the filing of the Court's forthcoming Order on the amount of jury costs.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
